

EAST AFRICAN SCHOOL OF AVIATION

Approved

 7/9/2022
 EASA

INTERNAL ADVERTISEMENT

The East African School of Aviation (EASA) is the training directorate of the Kenya Civil Aviation Authority charged with the mandate of providing aviation training to the local, regional and international aviation industry.

The School also offers training in different areas. One of these areas is Air Cargo Management which is under Aviation Business Department. The School invites application for persons interested in being rostered as Resource Person/Part-time Instructor in Air Cargo Management.

INSTRUCTOR: AIR CARGO MANAGEMENT

Job Purpose	The purpose of this job is to give instruction in the area of Air Cargo Management courses/training
Reports To:	Head of Training – Aviation Business Management
Job Description	Preparation of lesson plans, teaching materials and exercises, giving specialized instruction or training in the area of Air Cargo Management (Diploma in Air Cargo Management, Air Cargo Introductory, Dangerous Goods Regulations, Advanced Cargo Rating and Marketing), evaluation of students and submission of results.  Performing any other duty allocated by the Head of Training.
Job Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Diploma in Air Cargo Management from EASA or any other related areas such as Transport Management, Logistics Management or an equivalent,</li> <li>• IATA Diploma in Air Cargo Introductory, Dangerous Goods Regulations and Advanced Cargo Rating and Marketing,</li> <li>• Certificate in instructional techniques or equivalent,</li> <li>• Certificate in Computer proficiency,</li> <li>• Three years’ relevant field experience,</li> <li>• Two years’ experience in teaching/training,</li> <li>• A relevant degree certificate will be an added advantage.</li> </ul>

Interested candidates are required to submit their applications in plain sealed envelopes, and attaching copies of certificates, testimonials and a detailed CV with full contacts of three referees to the address below.

The Director East African School of Aviation

P. O. Box 30689 GPO 00100 NAIROBI

Hand-delivered applications should be submitted to the East African School of Aviation Registry.

Applications should be received not later than 20th September, 2022. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.